

ALESSANDRA GIANNELLI

University of Studies in Bari "Aldo Moro"
Department of philosophy, literature, history and social sciences

Associate professor of Economic-Political Geography

ISTITUTIONAL ROLES

Secretary of Italian Association of Geography Teachers – section Puglia

ACADEMIC CAREER

Since 2001 to 2005 she has been researcher in Economic-Political Geography at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Studies in Foggia. Since 2005 she is associate professor of Economic-Political Geography, firstly at the University of Studies in Foggia, since 2012 at the Faculty of Arts and Philosophy of the University of Studies in Bari "Aldo Moro". She has taught in several years "Economic Geography", "Geography of business", "Geography of development", "Geography of tourism", "Financial Geography" in University in Foggia and "Economic Geography", "Applied Geography", "Geography", "Teaching of human and economic Geography" in University in Bari. She is Chairman of the Board of Active Formative Learning for the A050 (Literary subjects in institutions of secondary education of the II grade) class and of the Board of Special Enabling Paths A050 and A039 (Geography) classes in University in Bari.

MAIN RESEARCH INTERESTS

Tourism Geography, Financial Geography, Geography of business