

ANTONELLA PIETTA

University of Brescia. Department of “Economics and Management”

Assistant Professor in Geography

---

STITUTIONAL ROLES

President of the Italian Association of Geography Teachers (Brescia section), Treasurer of the Italian Association of Geography Teachers (Lombardy section)

ACADEMIC CAREER

She teaches Sustainable Development at the University of Brescia, Department of Economics and Management.

She is board member of the Italian Association of Geography Teachers (AIIG) for the Brescia and Lombardy sections. She is member of Iris - Interdisciplinary Research Institute on Sustainability, an inter-university centre constituted by the University of Turin and the University of Brescia in which different disciplinary specialists enrich their competences and share reflections on themes and issues of sustainability through dialogue and integration of different disciplinary approaches. She has participated in many national research projects and has collaborated with various research institutes.