

Eyüp Artvinli

Eskişehir Osmangazi University, Faculty of Education, Turkey.
Department of Elementary Education
Associate professor in Geography Education

Editor-In-Chief of Review of International Geographical Education
Online (RIGEO)

Curriculum development, teacher training, textbook development, active learning, GIS education, teaching-learning methodologies in geography education

After working nine years as a geography teacher in different high schools, he had worked as a commission member in different themes in the Board of Education at the Ministry of Education in Ankara; he began to work at the Eskişehir Osmangazi University in 2008. He is the author of the research book entitled “Teacher Training in Geography in Turkey” and of several chapters in various books about human geography and geography education.

He also works as project manager and Erasmus coordinator of Faculty of Education at Eskişehir Osmangazi University. He also joins international symposiums and events as chair and coordinator.

He is also founder and manager of an electronic listserv since 2004 called “Turkish Geography Teachers Association”; He leads for more than 3,670 members and a very active group for geography academicians and geography teachers in Turkey.

EYÜP ARTVINLI