

FLAVIA CRISTALDI

“Sapienza” University of Rome - Department of “Archivistic Sciences, Linguistics and Geography”

Professor in Human Geography and in Geography of Migrations, PhD

STITUTIONAL ROLES

Director of Studies of the undergraduate degree course in Geographic Sciences for Environment and Health

ACADEMIC CAREER

Italian coordinator for the International Agreement for cultural and scientific cooperation between the University of Rome “La Sapienza” and the Michigan State University in East Lansing, Michigan (USA).

Adviser of the Italian Geographical Society.

Head of scientific research of the area of Rome for the national project MIUR “Migrations and processes of cultural interaction” from 2010 to 2012.

Winner in 2011 of the International Price “Globo Tricolore” for distinction and excellency of studies carried out on migration issues.

Member of the scientific committee of the Italian Journals “Semestrare di studi e ricerche di geografia” and of “geografia”, of the editorial series “Italia nel Mondo” and “Rapporto italiani nel mondo” and of the “Dizionario Enciclopedico delle Migrazioni Italiane nel Mondo”. She is also referee of the Romanian review “Lucrarile seminarului geografic dimitrie cantemir”.